Cabinet Department Research

Today you will investigate one of the Cabinet Level Departments. Use the department's website to answer the questions below:

1. What is the name of your department?
2. Who is the head of the department? What is his or her title?
3. In your own words, describe the mission of this department.
4. Find a recent action or activity of this department that illustrates the mission of this department. Describe the action and explain why it is important.
5. Find some information about this department that you think other students would find surprising or interesting. Describe it below.
6. Go to the Cherry Creek databases and find an opinion piece about this agency. (Gale databases are suggested.) How does the opinion piece either criticize or support this agency?
