*"You think I'm a flapper
but I can keep house"*

Mrs. D. H. Adams Author of "The Flapper and the Keep House Girl"

"If you get around, I'll keep my house better than another does here. Set the ice going to run into a stove. You see? You think I'm a flapper is a sign of good housekeeping."
By Mrs. D. H. Adams

Leave it to the modern girl to speak her mind. She's painfully frank, sometimes, but I've found that she's usually mighty capable, too. . . . alert and eager to learn. . . . looking for new time-savers. Girls today want more leisure, and they
