

U.S. Government Federalist vs. Anti-Federalists

When the Continental Congress finally came to an agreement on the language and intent of the seven Articles of the U.S. Constitution, the effort to form a new government was far from over. Many were suspicious of the secret meetings in Philadelphia that had led to the plan, and opposed the strength of the new federal government. Your task today is to use Chapter 2 Section 5 to:

- 1) Learn about the arguments for and against the new Constitution
- 2) Represent those arguments, showing the specific concerns of each side on a poster that you will create with group members of your choice
- 3) Your poster should include drawings, symbols and numbers to represent the above ideas, but NO WORDS
- 4) Tomorrow, students will choose the poster that does the best job of communicating these issues. The selected poster will receive extra credit
