

U.S. Government
Questions on Foreign Policy in the Middle East

1. What evidence do you see that might indicate historic grievances that some in the Middle East would have with respect to the Western Powers? Explain fully.

2. Name some of the interests the Western Powers had in the Middle East. Give one example of a Middle Eastern country and how it was affected by this interest.

3. Give one example of how the Western Powers might have acted differently to protect their interests while maintaining good relationships with the Middle East.

4. Give one example of how a Middle Eastern country might have acted differently to protect their interests while maintaining good relationships with the Western Powers.