

U.S. Government
How a Bill Becomes a Law

1. Who assigns bills to committees in the House of Representatives? In the Senate?
2. In which house of Congress does the budget bill originate? Why?
3. How can the Executive Branch prevent a bill from becoming a law?
4. If the Executive Branch prevents a bill from becoming a law, what is required for Congress to override the decision?
5. What must the President do before a bill passed by Congress becomes law?
6. Who can write a law
7. Who can introduce a law in Congress?

Below, draw a diagram that shows the steps for a bill to become a law.